

what makes Senator Kerry's anti-war activism on his return from honorable service in Vietnam 'newsworthy' just days before the Presidential election? After the fiasco with the swiftboat vet ads that turned out to be based on testimony from persons not even at the incident, there needs to be time to allow for research and rebuttal when blatantly partisan propaganda is put out on the public airwaves. Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of media bias.